You and I recently worked together on the Social Committee. Would you please provide feedback about

- what you appreciate about me and my performance?
- what do you feel I could do to be even more effective in the future?

Feedback

It has been a pleasure to help co chair the Intern Social Committee with Edmund. He is organized and well prepared for our intern committee meetings. Edmund takes all feedback into consideration which helps create a creative environment for the committee to work in. Overall, this past summers social committee was really successful and has continued to stay engaged through out the school year too.

Question

You and I recently worked together on the Summer 2021 tech intern program. Would you please provide feedback about

- what you appreciate about me and my performance?
- what do you feel I could do to be even more effective in the future?

Edmund, you are always a pleasure and a joy to interact with; whether socially or professionally. I have called on you for a number of tasks over the past two summers and you have increasingly stepped up to the place to perform all that was asked of you and more. Not only have I found your contributions valuable, but necessary and above and beyond what I expected.

Please keep being that bright creative light as you continue your early career. The passion and energy you bring into any room or call is palpable and a perfect fit into Humana's culture. Thank you for all you do and all you've done for this program; from helping to run the social committee (sometimes all alone), to creating the yearbooks, mentoring new interns and the immense help you provided with recruitment. I was so impressed! Keep being you, be curious and be present and you will surely excel!

Feedback

Edmund is frequently willing to assist and is broadening his skillset. He is a pleasure to work with and has a positive attitude about the tasks he is given and the interactions with his peers. Regarding Proofpoint, I'd suggest attending the on-demand LevelUp! classes that target L1 Admin knowledge. Also, try to shorten the response and close times for DFIR SITs. Because, email is non-stop and so are the threats within them.

Edmund you did a great job on the coordination of the effort and was always at hand to answer questions. It was also great that you "looked" outside the traditional "humana" to find people to talk.

to be more effective you could ensure the tech is working beforehand so time is not spent figuring that piece out.

Question

You and I recently worked together on Early Career Champion 2022-2023 Season (Recruiting, Engagement, and Support). Would you please provide feedback about

- what you appreciate about me and my performance?
- what do you feel I could do to be even more effective in the future?

Feedback

Edmund is very energetic, especially of the Purdue students. He is very energetic and has lots of ideas to recruit (from guest lectures) and engage and support the students.

I would suggest you be open to students from other schools and not always be so boastful of just Purdue, as it may cause issues later down the line (like what is currently going on with MSU.) Not every school has the same support and resources as Purdue, and others may get irritated later down the line with this.

- what you appreciate about me and my performance?
- what do you feel I could do to be even more effective in the future?

Feedback

I want to commend Edmund on his volunteer efforts with the Intern program. Edmund's engaging creativity and engaging approach have made a significant impact on the intern's experience. Edmund creates fun events- such as a welcome walking tour of Louisville and scavenger hunts to engage our potential and new interns and this demonstrates Humana's Value of "care". He goes the distance when showcasing Humana's inclusive culture to our Interns. Our Interns look up to Edmund as someone they want to emulate.

To continue to be more effective in the future I would recommend to keep all lines of communication open with Intern program managers and continue to volunteer as bandwidth allows.

You are creative and dedicated, always finding new ways to go above and beyond on the requests to help with recruitment and engagement. Your school spirit transfers to your work with the intern program and I appreciate that. Your work also makes the in-office experience of the interns much more enjoyable and I appreciate your presence.

Overall, to be more effective in your role you should find more ways to be available but professional. In your position, you are a mentor and a liaison between the interns and their leader/org. You've been doing very well so far but I fear that maybe the interns might see you as a friend and not want to discuss issues with their leader or work. I feel that you've been doing much better this year regarding this but it is a skill that requires constantly working on.

- what you appreciate about me and my performance?
- what do you feel I could do to be even more effective in the future?

Feedback

What I appreciate about you and your performance:

- You're enthusiasm and presence are contagious, and your friendly demeanor makes you very approachable, especially to new or perspective Interns who are trying to adapt to a new environment. I appreciate your willingness to jump into any task and help in any way possible. I sincerely love that you are not afraid to be vulnerable and just be yourself with no pretenses or airs about you! You are just you and you should never change that behavior.

What I feel you could do to be even more effective in the future:

- Exercise a little more discretion in certain situations. Consider the perspective of other people when saying or doing something to make sure you are not being misinterpreted or misunderstood. I know your intentions are always good and above all else, be yourself.
